Background

The company name is Joos and the tagline is “Fresh, Nothing Less”. This company offers a product line of natural and organic fruit and vegetable juices. The strengths of this product are that it can be consumed by a mass market, it is a portable product, a trending fad, and gives consumers the ability to enjoy more fruits and vegetables.

The company's weaknesses are limited shelf life, a high price point, it is a new product, and it may not be attractive to certain groups or individuals.

Overview

To design a juice product that is healthy, organic and made from fruits and vegetables. This product was selected because it is a trendy, profitable product that consumers are interested in. The key business challenge is getting people interested in the product and selling against the competitors. This marketing campaign will help because we are creating a brand with logos and tag lines that get people interested in the product.

Drivers

- Increase Brand Awareness amongst 50% of target market within first 6 months of introduction campaign and 30% of secondary market within 12 months of initial product launch date.
- Gain consumer trust of product quality from 30% of target market through follow-up sampling surveys and in-store demonstrations within 12 months of initial product launch date.
- Produce a measurable profit that exceeds initial budget expenditures within the third year of production and increase profit by 20% by year five.

Competitors

Primary competitors: Naked, Evolution, Odwalla, Green Mustache, Manic Organic, Wild.

Logos:

Taglines:

Naked: "Drink good, Do good"

Evolution: "Drink it in, Squeeze life"

Odwalla: "Nourishing the body whole"

Green Mustache: "Greens for all, big and small"

Manic Organic: "farm-pressed fruit juices"

Wild: "Wild about juice"

What makes our client different from their competitors is that they are targeting a much bigger audience, as well as educating their audience as to where exactly their products are coming from. IF a consumer knows exactly where each ingredient is brought in from, they can verify the authenticity of the organic nature of the product. They want to be able to create a product that is not only visually appealing, and healthy for you but also very delicious.

The way they engage their audience, is by hands on demonstrations of creating their product. They invite people to experience the process of making the juice, while at the same time teaching them about the nutrients they are putting in their bodies.

Tone

Creative Brief Joos

- Mood: Happy
- Voice: Calm, relaxed, and cheerful
- Point of View: healthy living, tasty, quick grab and go
- Attributes: all organic, environmentally safe, no chemicals just all fresh

Message

The primary message is to drink delicious, while being healthy. Also, to show their audience that instead of having to take artificially made, and processed supplements, they can get the same health benefits and nutrients from organic fruits and vegetables, without the worry of consuming processed, pesticide covered Ingredients

The single most important thing about this company is that it is an all naturally organic company, using the best ingredients and no preservatives, added sugars, to promote a healthy lifestyle. They want to stress the health benefits of drinking clean.

What our client is offering their audience is a simple, worry free way to enjoy their daily dose of fruits and veggies without having to read the ingredients, as well as giving them peace of mind, every time they see their logo they know exactly what they are putting into their bodies. Every product will offer explanation of their specific benefit, and all natural ingredients.

Visuals

We will be reaching the audience by using bright colors that reflect fruits and vegetables that give a fresh, clean feeling.

Details

Our deliverable will be the research on the product, including information on competitors. This information will be outlined in the Creative Brief. Once approved, we will brand the product line with a symbol, logo and slogan.
